THE MARKETS.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY POST, May 21, 1874.

REMARKS—The market was steady with a fair trade demand for most of the leading articles. There was, of course exceptions as there always will be, but taken as a whole a fair volume of trade was the result. The weather continues changeable. Our rivers are on the decline; boats, however, so far have experienced no difficulty. Bacon—The market was decidedly a firm one with a further advance in choice descriptions; holders of round lots are well pleased with the situation; the stock in first hands is a large one, most of which was cured expressly for this market. Country meat is also firm and finds ready purchasers at current rates. Flour—The receipts have been large; the market was scarcely so firm; certain brands were offered at a decline of 25c per barrel; the leading dealers are well supplied; the mills are running to their full capacity and are manufacturing a superior article of flour. Butter—Is still a drug; the decline has been a large one; the supply exceeds the demand. Cheese—Is held firmly; a large business done at prices that have ruled for some days. Apples—Firm and unchanged.

The following are the receipts of the leading articles of produce received since our last:

Flour, bbls	915	Apples, bbls	46
Butter, pks	24	Corn, sks	1,360
Bacon, lcs	150	Cheese, bxs	100

Bacon, pcs	385	Potatoes, bush	456
Rye, sks	170	Barley, sks	286

The following are the wholesale prices unless otherwise noted. From store the usual advance is obtained:

ALLEGHENY LIVE STOCK MARKET

OFFICE OF THE POST, THURSDAY, May 21, 1874.

CATTLE.

The market contained an abundant supply, in fact much larger than for several weeks. The receipts from the West alone exceeded 900 head, besides other lots were on sale from the adjoining counties. As might be expected under the circumstances the market was a little offish; buyers soon made the discovery that the supply was a large one and were disposed to hold off in order to obtain lower prices and secure better bargains; the result was a decline in prices of from 12½ to 25 per cwt. The decline in prices was confined to medium and common grades. Choice cattle, fine and smooth, brought as good prices as last week, for the simple reason that holders refused to accept less. As usual, there was a set of grumblers who can never see the bright side.

The following are the current rates at which the sales were made.

PRICES.

Extra to fancy	$7 00@7 25
Prime	6 50@6 75
Fine to Good	6 25@6 50
Common to Medium	5 50@6 00
Bulls	4 00@5 00
Mixed stock	3 50@ 00

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

There was a large supply in the market, exceeding in the aggregate 1,000 head—more than double the number offered last week. The market was an active one and butchers took hold freely. Previous prices were fully maintained, notwithstanding the large number on sale. The current rates were: extra clipped $6 50; good to prime $6 00@6 25; common to fair $5 00@5 50; spring lambs $3 00@5 00 per head as per weight and condition. The following are the rates of washers: 90-lb 8c; Lambs —There were a few fine lambs on sale, which found ready purchasers at $5 00@6 00 per head. Clipped sheep ranged from $6 00@6 25 as per condition. Taken as a whole the market was a good one.

MILCH COWS.

The market was well supplied. The number of good milchers was not very numerous; this, however, has been the situation for some time. The range of prices were from $35@65 per head.

HOGS.

The offerings of hogs were light—a mixture of all kinds. Butchers took hold sparingly; prices, however, have undergone no quotable change. The rates were: good hogs $6 00@6 50 per cwt; light thin hogs $5 00@5 50. At the close of the market the pens were pretty well cleared.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE POST, THURSDAY, May 2, 1874.

CATTLE.

The market contained a fair supply of cattle, but not up to that of last week. The market was a fair one and the advance before noted was fully maintained. As usual, the largest demand was principally for good, light young steers, weighing from 1,000 to 1,200 pounds. For this description of stock there were plenty of buyers, and good prices were obtained. It may be proper to note that not only country dealers and butchers fancied this kind of steers, but also buyers for the Philadelphia and New York markets wanted that kind of stock, being an unusual occurrence for the latter buyers. The current rates are:

PRICES.

Extra 1,400@1,500-lb steers, fine and smooth	$6 50@6 60
Extra 1,200@1,300-lb steers, fine and smooth	6 25@6 50
Good 1,100@1,200-lb steers, fine and smooth	5 00@6 25
Good 1,000@1,100 lb steers, fine and smooth	5 75@6 00
Stockers, 800@900	4 50@5 00
Mixed lots, various kinds	4 00@4 75

SHEEP.

The market was well supplied, in fact the offerings were large, consisting of various grades. Prices were lower than last week. Holders were evidently anxious to realize. The advices from New York and Philadelphia were favorable for buyers, who made good use of the same. The decline since our last was fully one cent per pound—some dealers say it was even more. The current rates are: extra 100-lb clipped $6 25@6 50; prime 90 to 95-lb $6 00@6 25; good 80 to 85-lb $5 00@5 50. There is scarcely any demand for unshorn sheep except at a heavy discount, as compared with clipped.

HOGS.

The receipts have been light as compared with last week. The market has undergone scarcely any change. The supply was equal to the demand. The prospect of warm weather has made buyers indifferent about purchasing. Towards the close of the market a better feeling prevailed. The current rates for the various kinds are as follows:

PRICES.

Extra Philadelphia,	$6 25@6 50
Prime "	6 20@6 30
Extra Yorkers,	5 25@5 50
Rough and common lots	4 00@4 25

PITTSBURGH WOOL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE POST, THURSDAY, May 21, 1874.

REMARKS—The market since our last has presented nothing very new or important. There is nothing doing here. This section of the country has been pretty well cleaned out some time since, in fact there is scarcely any of the old crop left. The new crop is not yet ready for market. The unfavorable weather has been a large draw back. The outlook at this time is not a flattering one. Prices are altogether nominal, as follows: Fleece—washed 40@43c; tub washed 45c; unwashed 28c per lb.

New York Money Market.

NEW YORK, May 20.—Customs receipts $232,000. Treasury disbursements $287,000. Specie shipments to-day $460,000 and $830,000 are engaged so far for to-morrow's steamers. Money loaned at 2 per cent. and closed at 2½ per cent. Sterling quiet at $4,87½@4,88 for sixty days and $4,90½@4,91 on sight.

Gold opened at 112¼, and closed at 112¼, the only two prices to-day. Carrying rates were 1@3 per cent., closing at 2 per cent. Clearings $20,000,000. State bonds firm. Railroad bonds quiet and steady.

Stocks opened strong at ¼@½ per cent., an advance over yesterday's closing. Prices fluctuated from ¼@1 per cent. until the last hour of business, when the market became weak and prices declined to the lowest points of the day, the fall having ranged from ¼ to ½ per cent. Shortly before the close a firmer feeling set in, and prices recovered ¼ to ⅜ per cent. In the entire list the dealings were on a moderate scale and the market presented no special feature.

The Express says: The Executive Committee of the Western Union Directors, today, informally agreed that a cash dividend should be declared, payable in July, but the details and final disposition of the matter were postponed until the arrival of President Orton from Europe on Sunday or Monday next. The Commercial says: A number of representatives of prominent trunk lines of railroads are in the city with a view of making some arrangements, if possible, with Commodore Vanderbilt to establish a higher basis of charges for through transportation of freights. The stock sales for the day were 142,000 shares, of which 49,000 were Western Union, 10,000 New York Central, 28,000 Union Pacific, 16,000 Lake Shore, 6,000 Pacific Mail, 7,000 Northwest, 8,000 St. Paul, and 7,000 Wabash.
